It's Perfectly Formed

by Penny Humphrey

It's perfectly formed
But somehow not right
I've looked at it again and again
But it's somehow not right
I looked from behind
For a different view
Standing well back
But somehow I knew
It's not right.
Is it the angles?
Perhaps they're not true
Is the hole where the head should be Too big or too small?
I know that I love it
Familiar and cool
But not right
