

Bourne
toWrite...
creative writing
workshops

Fearless Generation

by Stuart Carruthers

She's waiting on her destiny to come

Innocence trapped in their sights legitimacy on their side

Carnage on hers

Protected by your ignorance

A childhood unlike any other

Lessons cancelled when the red mist descends

History unfolds as the victims fall

Pandemonium as the sky lights up Blood pumps her patriotic heart
Journalists record their version
As their paymasters wish

Mother forgive me if i don't return
But I'm still a child
For I know what they have done
I'm waiting on my destiny to come