

Bourne
toWrite...
creative writing
workshops

The Big Boss

by Sho Botham

I have everything in life I have ever wanted
So everyone believes
But they don't know what I've been through
What I endured
What I gave up
To reach where I am now

I started out with absolutely nothing
So they tell me
But I don't remember way back then
When I had
holes in my shoes
Socks full of darning

I am bright, intelligent and very lucky
So I'm told
Material goods in great abundance
But they are
what others want
Not what I need

I do have everything in life I have ever wanted
Ever needed
It's not what others need or want

What I need
Is simple
Is true

My everything in life that I have ever wanted
Is here
It's all around me to enjoy
It's not material
It's natural
It's nature

