

I Will Survive

At first I was afraid, I was petrified,
It seemed like apart from family there was no one to confide,
I started on my journey and it came crashing to an end,
Some break and some grow stronger, I knew I had to bend.

So I grew strong and learned how to get along,
An evil virus such as you will never ruin my song,
I started so I'll finish when you get out the way,
I'll be the one who beats you, to fight another day.

Now I can see the light, the tunnels almost at its end,
And I know without a doubt that I am really my best friend,
I've fought for this and gained so much by sticking to my guns,
There were tragic times of darkness but most was really fun.

There was hope from all my teachings, they encouraged how new life,
Can be helped along the way with some hard work and some strife,
I've conquered many demons but none as bad as you,
At least I stop mine by mindfulness, can the same be said of you?

So I grew strong, and learned to get along,
You cut off my career path and you know that's really wrong
But once you go I'll celebrate by jumping back again
I'll just pick up my studies... my computer and my pen

Let life begin again so we can build our new tomorrow
Instead of darkness that you cast that filled us full of sorrow
Let me begin, before you came I was learning how to teach
To the younger generation to say 'the sky's not out of reach

It was meant to be year but you cruelly cut it down
To nine months like a pregnancy without the pretty gown
It was my own birth, I was being reborn and loving it as well
You probably didn't know it but at times I felt like hell.

But I grew strong learned to get along
We all know now that what you did filled us full of scorn
It took hard work to get here and I won't give up the fight
Just go and leave us healthy now, why don't you just take flight

I have a passion, well more a gift
To enable younger people to talk without a rift
It's important that communication comes quite naturally
Did you know our human race is strong, yes it is strong, actually.

So here's some more, I will survive
I'm breathing, so I know myself, I'm very much alive
I'll just start again with vigour when you are finally gone
Just like I said before you can't cut short my song.
